

A childhood game

Describe a game (not a sport) you enjoyed playing in your childhood.

You should say:

what game it was

where you played it

who you played it with

and explain why you enjoyed playing this game.

Part 3

Games in General

These questions are about are games for everyone, not just children.

- What are some of the most popular games in your country?
- How have games changed over the past few decades?
- Can you explain why adults often play different games to what they played when they were children?
- (Similar to above) What do you think are the differences between adults' games and those for children?
- Do you like to win when you play a game?
- Do you prefer to play a game with a team or play alone?
- How important would you say winning is when playing a game?
- Is winning or losing important in athletics (or, sport)?
- What do you think are the differences between winning as an individual and winning as a team?

- Do all ages groups treat winning as equally important?
- What do you think of people who are only interested in winning when they play a game?
- Are there any games in your country that involve the players using money?

Childhood Games

- In your country, what games do children generally play today?
- What is the most popular children's game today?
- Is that easy to play?
- Do boys play different games to girls?
- How are these games different to the games children played a few decades ago?
- What games did you usually play when you were a child?
- Do you think children can learn anything from playing games?
- (Similar to above) Are there any games that can help develop their abilities?
- Do you think children now have more time to play games than they did in the past?
- Do you think it's good for children to spend so much time indoors, playing games?
- Do you think looking at a computer or ipad all day long is good for health?
- Why do their parents still let them do it?
- What are the different effects on children when they play electronic games, compared to the effects when they play ball
- Do parents in your country encourage their children to play games?
- Why do children play games?

- Do you think children really need to play games?
- Do you think there are benefits from children playing games?
- Do you think children should receive a reward of some kind if they win in a game?
- games outdoors?
- Do children play any games at school in your country?
- When children become teenagers, do they change the games they play?

Children's Play

- What do you think are the major differences between indoor children's play and outdoor children's play?
- Do you think children develop different abilities from playing outdoors, compared to playing indoors?
- Can you suggest any ways to encourage children to play outdoors more?
- Do you think it's important for parents to supervise their children when they play outdoors?
- What do 2-3 year-old children do when they play?

Competition

- What would you say are the pros and cons of competition in business?
- Do you think you can ever have competition and co-operation existing at the same time?