

Sharing

- Do you like to share things with your friends?
- Is there anything that you would not share with others?
- Are you willing to share your favourite possessions?
- When you are young, did our parents teach you to share with others?
- How do you think parents could encourage their children to share?
- Do you think there will be a car sharing in the future?
- (Possible question) Would you be willing to share your job (your work) with others?
